Bathrooms: 3

Guests: 6

This is a fabulous property in Corfu and a place where one can totally relax. Villa Anouk is a luxury villa for holiday rental in Corfu and is a truly idyllic hideaway that offers guests complete peace and tranquility while enjoying a breathtaking position and stunning views, yet only a short walk from the village and the nearest harbor. With its many spoiling features, Villa Anouk is a much sought after three-bedroom property, sleeping six in luxury. Each bedroom has an en-suite bathroom and shower. A plasma television and state of the art Sonos music system in the sitting room, TVs in all the bedrooms and Wi-Fi all contribute to the contemporary comfort and convenience the house offers its guests, all year round.

An extraordinary feeling of light and space is created by the seven French windows leading off the spectacular sitting room area and its classic open plan design, with a striking "Venetian tower", containing two of the three bedrooms, makes Anouk a much admired and incredibly sought after property with rare sea frontage. The stunning open-plan sitting room area is dominated by a traditional Corfiot fireplace. The room is beautifully furnished with comfortable sofas and armchairs creating a room for all seasons and offers a particularly cozy ambience in the Spring and the Autumn, when the nights can be cooler.

A wrap-around terrace that is almost integral with the inside living space, has sumptuous day beds, sun loungers and chairs with spectacular views of the sea, sky, Kaparelli Island and of the Albanian mountains across the channel. The covered loggia, barbecue and a large oval dining table seating eight, ensures that this brilliant combination of integral inside and outside living is the natural gathering point and the perfect entertaining space, enabling guests to drift inside and out with ease.

The grounds are inter-planted with cypress, oak, judas trees, carob, pomegranates, olives and other indigenous vegetation. Villa Anouk is cited in the same estate with Villa Amelie and can be rented jointly or independently.
